WHY BUILD WALLS?

Area II - Easily expandable / Quick to configure / Simple to relocate

ISSUE 16. 06.06.2011

Clerkenwell Design Week marked the launch of Area II, to universal acclaim.

This eagerly awaited update of a product that has redefined the potential for flexible and adaptable meeting rooms over the last five years, delivers a new level of performance and manufacturing refinement.

To fully illustrate the level of product intelligence of the Area II range, we also launched a new product micro-site, which is now viewable via our web home page. This short animation on 'Why build Walls' gives a flavour for the diversity of product information within this new micro-site.
